WILL SOON
ISSUE THE LICENSESLicking County Entitled to 55 Liquor Licenses Under New Law

BOARD WILL BE SUPREME

In Stating Who Shall Be
Permits Will be Issued in November—Progressives Endorse Applicant.Licking county liquor dealers have begun to evince curiosity as to who are the lucky fifty-five; or, rather, who are the unlucky thirty.With appointment of the state license board sometime this week by Governor Cox, followed by appointment of the two members of the county board, will come the question as to which present dealers will be continued in business and which will be ordered to discontinue.Licking county's 85 saloons will be reduced to 55 under provision of the new license law. The county license board will issue permits sometime in November to fifty-five saloonists, at the same time notifi-ng the remaining thirty to shut up shop. The basis for determining which ones may be continued is a matter practically wholly within the county board's discretion, excepting that all action of the county board is subject to approval of the state board.For the purpose of licensing the trade in intoxicating liquors the state is divided into districts and each county constitutes a district.
By provision of the statute each county licensing board shall consist of two commissioners, not more than one of whom is of the same political party.One member will hold office for two years from the second Wednesday in August and the other member for four years. After 1915 the state board will biennially appoint a commissioner for four years. Commissioners shall not hold any other public office except that of notary public, or be interested directly or indirectly in the liquor business. The salary shall be fixed by the state board subject to approval of the governor, but shall not exceed $5,000 a year, payable monthly.It is generally believed the salary here will be from $2,000 to $2,500.
The short term member shall be chairman of the board. Both members must agree on any action taken except licensing, and if they cannot agree the state board will make a final decision. In case the county board cannot agree in the matter of granting a license the state member will appoint a third member of the county board, who shall not receive more than $10 a day and mileage, and the majority vote of the board shall be final.Each commissioner shall give bond equal to his salary. The board may appoint a secretary and fix his compensation. The secretary shall give a $2,500 bond. The board must provide an office at the county seat and may employ such clerks as necessary. The board members shall be entitled to traveling expenses while on board business. The board may grant, issue, renew and transfer, also suspend or revoke all licenses to traffic in liquor.The license year shall begin on the fourth Monday of November. Not more than one saloon shall be licensed in any township or municipality of less than 500 population, nor more than one for each 500 population.Saloons which will be put out of business by the operations of the new law will have a limited time to dispose of their stock in trade. The law does not cover that point and it will be optional with the state board. It may be thirty, sixty, ninety days or even a year.The Democratic county central committee has not endorsed any application for county license commissioner. The Republican county committee has.

Ambassador Wilson
Resumes Conference
On Mexican SituationWashington, July 29.—Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson resumed his conferences today with Secretary Bryan on the Mexican situation. Mr. Wilson had expected to quit Washington today but remained at the request of the secretary to continue his extended report of conditions in the southern republic.The senate foreign relations committee held a special meeting at which Secretary Bryan appeared to continue conferences on the proposed Nicaraguan protectorate. Early today it had not been decided if Ambassador Wilson would confer with the committee on Mexico.Investigation of conditions in Mexico by a joint congressional committee was proposed in a resolution today by Representative Steiwer of Texas. Five senators and five representatives would examine all diplomatic correspondence and other documents relating to the situation.President Wilson had no announcement to make today about the policy he United States would pursue toward Mexico but there is every reason to believe no steps would be taken by this country pending the outcome of the plans being laid by leading Mexicans to bring about peace.The fact that some of the mediators interested in adjusting the differences between the followers of Huerta and arranza were instrumental in persuading Porfirio Diaz to abdicate, is encouraging officials in touch with Mexican affairs to believe that their efforts may bring about the resignation of President Huerta.The argument the Mexicans are said to be planning to place before Huerta is that the United States under no circumstances would recognize his regime and that to extricate Mexico from its financial straits, it is necessary to establish a new administration and obtain the recognition of the American government. If President Huerta were willing to abdicate, men acceptable to him as well as the con-stitutionalists have been tentatively selected from whom a successor would be named.Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson had nothing to say today about the developments on the situation generally. He had not decided when he would leave for his vacation.Ambassador Wilson, it was learned, will appear before the Senate foreign relations committee tomorrow to give his views of the conditions in Mexico.
Secretary Bryan was prevented from attending the committee's special meeting today on account of conferences at the state department with the ambassador.Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson, summoned from Mexico City to inform the Washington administration of conditions in the rebellion-torn republic, talked with President Wilson and Secretary Bryan, submitting chiefly a recommendation that the United States use its influence to stabilize the Huerta regime.No policy was evolved—at least, none was announced—but it became known that the president's ideas and those of Ambassador Wilson as to the course to be pursued are so radically different that the administration officials interpreted the developments as forecasting the acceptance of Ambassador Wilson's resignation.President Wilson and the ambassador regard the future of the Mexican situation, it was learned, from opposite viewpoints.The president is concerned over the morality of any policy adopted by the United States and its effect on other Latin-American countries, and is disinclined to strengthen government that came into power through the questionable events incident to Madero's assassination.Ambassador Wilson, on the other hand, is disposed to look at the situation not from past events, but with the practical idea of the future. He believes it is the business of governments to look to the future, and his suggestions have been in the direction of extending recognition to the Huerta government if it did certain things to conserve American interests.The inadvisability from a diplomatic standpoint of maintaining in Mexico City a representative who would not be sympathetic with the purposes of the Wilson administration in Washington is said to have practically convinced the president.
In Portugal-Revolutionary Activity Is PrevailingParis, July 29.—Despatches from Portugal received by the way of the Spanish frontier today indicate that great revolutionary activity prevails in Portugal. It is reported that a vast movement, planned in Lisbon and Oporto may break out at any moment. From the same source it is learned that serious street fight-ing occurred last night in various places. The censor in Lisbon refused to allow the cabling of Associated Press despatches, stating that a band of revolutionists had attempted to rush the barracks of the 16th infantry regiment in order to rescue political prisoners detained there.
The civilians were repulsed by the troops after an exchange of shots with the guard.Rain Near Newark Brings Brief Respite From the Intense HeatA drop of ten degrees in the temperature in less than an hour was recorded Tuesday morning, occasioned by the rain, which was light in Newark but rather heavy in some of the surrounding territory.At 11 o'clock Tuesday morning the mercury in the tube at fire headquarters stood at 94 degrees. At 12 o'clock it registered 84, and a cool breeze afforded pleasant relief for a time at least.Shortly after 12 o'clock the temperature was "revised upward" and at 1 o'clock it had reached close to 90 again. A high humidity was responsible for much of the suffering.
This period of intense humidity began Monday afternoon and continued throughout the night. Many persons who have prided themselves that their houses were cool, found refreshing sleep almost impossible Monday night.This condition prevailed over most of the central states and the weather bureau at Columbus reports that conditions in this territorywere so unsettled that it was impossible to predict what the weather during the next thirty-six hours might bring forth. Possible thunder showers are indicated.The Mississippi valley was the hottest place in the heat belt. An official temperature of 100 degrees was reported at Concordia, Kans., Monday.A telephone message at noon Tuesday stated that a heavy rain fell in the vicinity of Reynoldsburg and as far east as Kirkersville. The light shower which fell in this city, lasting but a brief time, passed east and Zanesville probably was the beneficiary.

AKRON HEAT VICTIM

Akron, July 29.—Heat claimed another life in Akron today, bringing the total of deaths since Saturday up to four, when Dorothy White, 11 months old babe of M. C. White, died from exhaustion. City Detective Charles Doerler was also prostrated by the heat on a downtown street and was taken to his home in an ambulance.

IT'S NOT SO HOT.

Columbus, July 29.—In a muggy, uncomfortable atmosphere which made clothes a burden and physical work a hardship, Ohio today suffered in the second hot wave of the summer.Doing their part to ease suffering humanity, the weather bureau officials announced that the mercury in the thermometer is not as high as during the recent hot spell. They attribute the extreme uncomfort-ableness to the humidity.Last night people in the larger cities of the state slept on the fire escapes, on porches and in the parks.
As the heat wave seems to be general in the central states, no permanent relief is expected for a day or two.DENOUNCED MULHALL TO COMMITTEEMajority Leader Underwood Brands Him a
"Liar and Black-mailer"

NEVER SAW HIM BEFORE

Sensational Scene When the Probers Met to Resume the Lobby Investigation—Mulhall Claims He Asked for Probe.Washington, July 29.—Martin M.
Mulhall told the senate lobby committee that at one time he proposed an investigation of his abilities as lobbyist for the National Association of Manufacturers to Former Chairman Wilson, of the labor committee; Speaker Clark and Republican Leader Mann, and that all turned down his proposition.Majority Leader Oscar W. Underwood, of the house today denounced Martin M. Mulhall, alleged lobbyist for the National Association of Manufacturers as a "liar and a black-mailer." Mr. Underwood appeared before the senate lobby committee to deny that Mulhall had ever talked to him about legislation before congress. After one look at the witness he said: "I never saw him before in my life.""You think," said the majority leader, "that it is in the interest of the public that a man who has taken liberties with public men, as this man has, should be contradicted. I regard a man of this kind as a black-mailer. This man has never been in the ways and means committee room; nor have been any men. He may have had conversations with me, but he said he had an interview, but I want to say that statement is a lie."Mr. Underwood appeared unexpectedly and made a brief statement before he was sworn. He denounced as false Mulhall's statement that an employee of the ways and means committee had been in his employ.
According to Mulhall's earlier testimony the man was paid $20 a month.
"You made a statement that this man was a blackmailer; that meant he used threats to extort money," said Senator Reed."I think he was trying to get money out of his own people," returned Mr. Underwood.Chairman Underwood read Mul-hall's letter about the alleged interview in which Mulhall wrote that Underwood had told him that he could not do otherwise than appoint William B. Wilson, now secretary of labor, chairman of the house labor committee, because there was no other candidate before the ways and means committee."That whole statement is a lie out of whole cloth—not a word of truth in it," declared Mr. Underwood. "There never was a question but that Wilson's selection as head of that committee, was made solely because of his party qualifications.
It is clear to me this man was here writing these things to his people trying to make out that he was doing great things. He never had any conference with me. The statement in his letter can be disproved by the very members of the ways and means committee. I am sure I never met this man. He has a face I could not forget.""There is nothing here that reflects on me," continued Mr. Underwood, "but I want it set right before the country."Mulhall reiterated he had talked with Underwood briefly in the corridor and had written to his employers "about conditions just as I found them in Washington at that time."ASSESSORS NOMINATING PETITIONSColumbus, O., July 29.—Secretary of State Graves has notified County Election Boards to receive nomination petitions for assessors, but few have been filed.If petitions for a referendum vote on the Warner taxation act are filed before the law goes into effect, Aug.
8, assessors will be voted for at the same time electors are voting on the referendum.Should the referendum fail to veto the act the assessors who are elected will have no positions to fill, but should the act be vetoed the assessors will act as heretofore under existing laws.New Chief of Bureau
Is SelectedWashington, July 29.—Professor Charles F. Marvin has been selected for chief of the weather bureau to succeed Willis L. Moore, recently removed. Professor Marvin is now chief of the instrument division. He was appointed to the old signal service in 1884 from Ohio. President Wilson will send his nomination to the Senate probably this week.Under the new chief more attention will be paid to weather reports and forecasts as they affect or are likely to affect agriculture and general farm conditions throughout the country. Other changes are to be made in the bureau, but Secretary Houston was not ready to announce that.Professor Marvin is the inventor of many instruments used by the bureau. He has represented the department of agriculture at a number of important meteorological congresses and has written extensively on the subject of weather investigation. He has conducted experiments upon which are based the tables used by the weather bureau so determining the amount of moisture in the air, has studied the measurement of wind velocity and pressure, and also on the use of kites for ascertaining meteorological conditions.Professor Marvin was born at Columbus, O., and was educated in the public schools there and at the Ohio University. He came to Washington in 1884 and entered the government service in what was then known as the signal service, since renamed the weather bureau. He became head of the instrument division of the bureau in 1888, which position he has held since.FINED FOR CONTEMPT
OF COURTBirmingham, Ala., July 29.—Federal Judge Grubb today fined the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association $2500 for contempt of court in violating a decree issued in 1911, commanding the organization to abide by federal anti-trust laws.
President J. H. McLaurin of Jacksonville, Fla., was fined $1,000.GEMS VALUED AT $75,000 STOLEN
AT NARRAGANSETTNew York, July 29.—Gems valued at $75,000, including a rope of pearls worth $60,000, were stolen from the home of C. C. Rumsey at Narragansett Pier during the twenty-four hours ending Sunday night.Mrs. Rumsey was a daughter of the late E. H. Harriman. The theft was made known today.The rope of pearls was given to Mrs. Rumsey by her mother and had a sentimental value far in excess of its intrinsic worth. Other jewels stolen according to a statement issued at the office of the Harriman estate in this city, include the following: Ruby and pearl pendant; gold pin set with magnificent ruby solitaire; diamond brooch; gold mesh bag.Mrs. Rumsey's home was entered about 8 o'clock Saturday night and about the same time Sunday night.The theft had not been reported to the police this afternoon, and Mr.
Teggo, secretary to the late E. H.
Harriman, said private detectives were working on the case and would probably handle it independently of the office.Mrs. Rumsey is now at her home at Narragansett Pier.PROVINCE HAS SECEDED FROM GOVERNMENTPeking, July 29.—5:20 p. m.—The province of Hu-nan seceded from the Peking government on July 25, according to a consular report just received here.General Li Yuen-Hong, vice president of the republic, who is conducting operations in Central China from Wu-chang, declared recently that his forces were capable of dealing with the revolt in both Kiang-si and Hu-nan.It is impossible to draw a border line between the rebellious and the loyal provinces, for many cities in the rebel provinces declare themselves loyal and some of the cities in the loyal provinces have gone over to the rebels. It is known, however, that important rebel forces are operating in the provinces of Kiang-su, Kiang-si, Ngan-hwei, Hu-nan, Fo-ken and Kang-tung.CLAIM TATHAM DID NOT BRING ACTION AGAINST THEM IN GOOD FAITHCommissioners Tavenor and Brownfield, County Auditor Riley and Contractor Williams File Answer in Bridge MatterSAY ACTION PERFECTLY LEGAL IN LETTING OF CONTRACT FOR SECOND STREET BRIDGEMarch Floods Necessitated Replacing of Old Structure at Once—Question Raised as to Why Plaintiff Did Not Object at Time Contract Was Let—Williams Lowest Bidder and County Saved $600 by Commissioners Tavenor and Brownfield.Handicapped by a heritage of crippled finances, particularly in the bridge and road funds, handed down by its Republican predecessors, the present board of county commissioners appears to be reaping the attendant annoyance and inconvenience.
Despite this condition Commissioners Tavenor and Brownfield declare they have succeeded in securing exceptionally low contract prices on the great amount of work occasioned by the recent heavy floods, and this at a time when the entire country is putting forth an extra effort to establish adequate protection from any repetition of the disastrous floods.This was the substance of the comment of these two commissioners, Tuesday, with reference to the temporary restraining order issued Monday by Common Pleas Judge Fulton, holding up the contract of H. E.
Williams for construction of the Second street bridge, pending hearing of the suit instituted by S. I. Tatham.Urgent requests have come from South Newark citizens that their views regarding the Second street bridge proposition be given publicity, but in deference to the court The Advocate has declined to use such statements just at this time, preferring to await the court's action.County Commissioners Tavenor and Brownfield in an interview Tuesday declared in defense of their action in letting the Second street bridge contract to H. E. Williams for $26,277 on May 24, that by so doing the county saved $600. With reference to Tatham's contention that no expenditure in excess of $18,000 could be made legally without a vote of the people except in case of casualty or necessity, Messrs. Tavenor and Brownfield assert that the Second street situation was clearly one of both casualty and necessity.The two commissioners against whom Tatham has filed his suit, expressed curiosity as to why Tatham had not held up the Williams contract at the time of the letting, May 24, instead of delaying until more than two months had elapsed.It is asserted by Mr. Tavenor and Brownfield that they have always let their contracts to the lowest bidders, and that in this instance the Williams bid was not only the lowest but that his specifications provided for more water room beneath the spans His work on the Second street bridge is already partly complete.In the answer of the defendant commissioners, the county auditor and Contractor H. E. Williams, it is stated that they admit the allegations of the plaintiff, Tatham, relative to the duly elected and qualified officers named, that they entered into contract on May 24 for the construction of the bridge in question, that the county engineer's estimate exceeded $18,000 and that the matter was not referred to a vote of the people.They aver, however, that the bridge was made necessary by casualty, viz., the March floods, that it is an important bridge and that the best interests of a large community demand its immediate construction. They allege that the bridge was damaged by the March floods, that it was condemned to traffic as a result of this damage.The answering defendants also charge that the plaintiff Tatham did not bring the suit in the interest of taxpayers, that the action was brought in good faith and that Tatham was without authority to bring the suit. They further allege that he did not serve the prosecuting attorney with a written notice to bring the action.Following is a synopsis of the emergency act passed by the legislature last March, and under which commissioners obtained their authority for proceeding with the Second street bridge contract:(House Bill No. 640.) AN ACT.To authorize county commissioners, township trustees, boards of education, road commissioners, councils of municipal corporations, village boards and officers thereof temporarily to repair, reconstruct and replace public property and public ways destroyed or injured by floods occurring in March and April, 1913; to authorize county commissioners and councils of municipal corporations to borrow and expend money for the purpose of cleansing public places and private grounds and buildings and removing therefrom any matter deposited therein by said flood which is inimical to the public health, safety or convenience; and to exempt proceedings for the permanent repair, reconstruction and replacement of such public property and public ways and bonds issued and levies made for such purposes from certain requirements and limitations.The hearing of the petition for injunction was called before Judge T. B. Fulton Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock with Attorneys Jones & Jones and Phil H. Smythe representing the defendant commissioners. Attorney Ray Martin is representing Mr. Tatham.Prosecutor Jones testified that no request had been made of him to bring the action. The hearing was still in progress at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.News of Rioting in Capital of Peru Has Reached WashingtonLondon, July 29.—A despatch from Santiago, Chile, to the Havas news agency reports a great catastrophe at Lima, Peru. All wires between Chili and Peru are cut and it has not yet been possible to obtain details.Press from Lima, announced the construction of a new cabinet and not mentioning anything in the nature of a catastrophe or a revolution.
Political conditions in Peru have been disturbed for some time, the anger of the populace being directed chiefly against the Senators. A bomb was exploded at the residence of the speaker of the senate last week and on the same day a mob prevented the senators entering the senate chamber for the session. The cause of the trouble was that the speaker had ignored a decision of the supreme court in regard to the annulment of the election of some senators.A short time afterward an attack was made on former President Leguia and his son, who in defending themselves killed two of their associates and wounded others, which brought about their arrest.The streets of the capital have been since patrolled by soldiers.Telegrams were exchanged by this city and Lima this morning through the Central and South American Telegraph company as usual. At the office of the company it was said that no information had been received that would indicate any unusual occurrence at Lima.

All Day Long

While you are on your vacation you will feel lonely for the Advocate back home. Save yourself the annoyance by ordering your paper before you leave Newark. Your home paper received every day while you are away will be like

OUR POLICY IN MEXICO.

SIGNING I. AND R. PETITIONS

(Ohio State Journal.)

No principle in the law of nations is more firmly settled than that unasked intervention by one sovereignty in the affairs of another is justifiable only when self-preservation requires such action. Intervention is in fact, an act of war, and the provocation must be as great and as substantial in one case as in the other. When the necessity of self-preservation is advanced as a reason for intervention it is to be understood as national self-preservation. The existence of a French empire in Mexico, bordering on States of our Union, recently in revolt, might have endangered our national integrity and a threat of intervention in that crisis was highly proper.

There is no parallel between the situation then confronting us and the present situation in Mexico. It is not pleasant to have a quarrelsome neighbor, and the disorder in his territory may make mining and other business operations there temporarily unprofitable. Brigands even may endanger the lives of adventurous Americans who have remained in Mexico in the face of troubles they must have seen coming. Any or all of these occurrences, however, fall short of putting our national existence in jeopardy. Brigandage has imperiled Americans in Italy, Turkey and Morocco and nobody suggested on any occasion that we go to war; and Mexicans of all political complexions are unanimous in declaring that unasked intervention by us would mean war. We should feel the same way under similar circumstances.

The situation is extremely delicate, and the Administration at Washington fully appreciates the fact that no misstep must be made. To raise the embargo on the shipment of arms to the insurgents in northern Mexico would be in effect to recognize them as belligerents. To extend the embargo so as to cover all shipments of war material would be attended with equal difficulties. Both steps are said to have been contemplated by the Administration, but one should not give too much credit to these rumors.

Don't feel badly even if you did not get much result out of the garden. Think of all the fun you had looking over seed catalogs last spring.

A lot of people would get valuable exercise in walking nowadays if it wouldn't be thought that they didn't have any automobile.

Lonely farmers that are bothered with tramps can get rid of them easily by hanging out a notice, "Harvest hands wanted."

On Second Thought

Once upon a time Colonel Gillett came to town with a Kentucky gentleman whom he introduced as the son of a "famous southern planter." The gentleman's father was an undertaker.

The first thing Luke McLake did upon his return was to dash off a mean paragraph about the shadowy skirt. We were rather looking for some nifty seaside sayings.

Ed Doe is the "guy who made the flood go down and put the 'ark' in Newark." This must be so for Ed says it himself.

How an old time teacher sniffs when she learns that school is to be dismissed for a couple of hours in order that the children may watch the circus parade.

A man looks a strange woman over for the purpose of noting and admiring her scenic effects. A woman looks her over for the purpose of criticizing the properties and stage management.

As we understand the term, an artist is one who would rather have a Stradivarius violin than the money.

Every woman who is bored by numerous visitors finally accepts Elmer Wiley's theory that it is better to be a hammer than an anvil.

A widow of 40 with five children stands a better chance of matrimony than an unmarried woman of 35.

Every man is in love, either with a woman or with himself.

Men are polite to the extent that when a man begins to tell an old story they will say they never heard it.

Nearly every woman complains that her husband is selfish. And she is right about it.

Many Newark people are buying Ford cars but a few are waiting for "affords." Perhaps not as many, however, as should.

Why can't somebody devise a way to bottle up this heat and uncork it say about January 29th?

Will C. Kuster at 13 is a grandfather. If there's a younger grandpa in Newark the Advocate would be delighted to get his picture.

The few who refused to contribute to the children's playground fund are invited to visit White or Halsey field any day. One look and they'll be sorry they weren't in on the gift to Newark children.

Don't ask the next man you meet if it's hot enough for him. It is. He knows it and so do you.

First Things

The first newspaper printed west of the Allegheny mountains was the Pittsburgh Gazette, which issued its initial number 127 years ago today, July 29, 1786. As the Gazette Times, this journal still occupies a prominent position in Smoky City journalism. The Gazette did not long remain the only newspaper in what was then "the wild west," for in the following year the Kentucky Gazette was established at Lexington by John and Fielding Bradford. In 1793 the Sentinel of the Northwestern Territory—a large mouthful for the "newsies," if such there were in those days—was founded in Cincinnati by William Maxwell, postmaster of that town. This was the first newspaper north of the Ohio and west of Pittsburgh. The Western Spy and Hamilton Gazette entered the Ohio field in 1793, and 1804 the Liberty Hall and Cincinnati Mercury made its appearance. The Inquirer and Cincinnati Advertiser was another early Ohio journal. The Canton Repository, still in existence, was founded in 1814 by John Saxton, who continued at the helm until his death in 1871. During his remarkable journalistic career, Saxton published accounts of the battle of Waterloo, the American civil war, and the surrender of Sedan.

The resolution relates to the city dumping grounds on the Miller tract south-east of the city. It makes it necessary to bury all waste matter from the city dumped on the tract.

The Human Procession

It is generally admitted especially by campaign orators in rural districts—that the most useful citizens of any nation are the farmers. "What would the world do without its farmers?" inquired the stump-speakers, the obvious answer being that the world would quickly have that all-gone feeling in its tum-tum. Therefore let us celebrate today the birthday anniversary of two eminent farmers.

Thos. Staples Martin carried on his agricultural activities on a farm two miles from Scottsville, Va., where he was born sixty-six years ago today. Farmer Martin has resided on that particular farm for just sixty years, except for the periods he spends in Washington, where he is a Democratic leader in the United States Senate, and the chairman of the powerful and puissant committee on appropriations. Farmer Martin served with the Confederate army as a member of the famous battalion of cadets from Virginia Military Institute. Although a lawyer and active in politics, he never held office until sent to the Senate in 1895. His election as Democratic leader of the Senate a couple of years ago was in spite of the determined opposition of William Jennings Bryan, who denounced the Virginian as a reactionary.

Farmer William C. Brown, who is president of the New York Central railway system as a side line, passes his sixtieth milestone today. He owns one of the finest and most productive farms in Iowa, and it is said that he makes more out of agriculture than railroadroading, although his salary as president of the New York Central is by no means a small one. He spends three or four months of each year in Iowa, and has taken an active interest in improving agriculture in that state. He began his railway service wooding engines on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul in 1869, and afterward was a section hand and telegraph operator on that road. In 1890 he became general manager of the Hannibal and St. Joseph and Kansas City, St. Joseph and Council Bluffs roads, and held similar positions with other western systems before he was made president of the New York Central four years ago.

Dr. Max Simon Nordau, most trenchant of Jewish writers, and equally famed as physician, scientist, orator, critic and Zionist, was born in Budapest sixty-four years ago today. The author of "Degeneration," "Conventional Lies," and other powerful works, has lately given the world his opinions on the suffrage movement. He believes in the ballot for the fair sex, and found much to praise in the militants as long as they "carried on war according to the rules of war." Later manifestations, such as the destruction of private property and attacks on individuals, are bitterly condemned by the eminent Jew, although he insists that the object of the movement should not be damned because of the actions of "isolated terrorists." He predicts that "the present century will most likely behold many a feminine cabinet minister who will bear her ministerial portfolio with the same consummate elegance that she now carries her mail."

Booth Tarkington, whose latest novel, "The Flirt," is the first in several years, was born in Indianapolis forty-four years ago today, and still resides in the Hoosier capital. He made his first great success as a fiction writer with "The Gentleman from Indiana" fourteen years ago. Mr. Tarkington's first wife divorced him in November, 1911, and a year later he married Mrs. Temple Robinson, the divorced wife of an English playwright. Writing is not easy work for the Indiana novelist, for he is a slow and painstaking workman, and subjects every phrase to careful revision.

Uncle Walt's Philosophy

Such is Fame.

James Simpson stole a million bones, a bunch of stocks and deeds; and then the press, in thunder tones, proclaimed his mighty deeds. The country echoed with the name of Jim, who was a bird; in every hut and hall his name became a household word. And every day you read of Jim in papers and in books, and murmur, while your eyes grow dim, "The country's full of crooks." Tom Teller, in the village bank, has worked for thirty years; all day the money's tuneful clank is sounding in his ears, and never has he swiped a plank from all that pile of rocks; and never has he packed a trunk with stolen bonds or stocks. As honest as the day is long, he goes his useful way; if his accounts were one cent wrong, he'd sweat for half a day. No correspondents him indite in red hot telegrams as copy men who walk aright aren't worth so many duns. And so the news is full of Jims, and you see one moral wreck, a hundred men are straight. The upright men don't make a noise in yellow public prints, nor paint the country, with the boys, in striking, lurid tints.

TORTURED BY UGLY ITCHING ERUPTION

Doctor Recommended Resinol. Half of a 50c Jar Cured It.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 5, 1912.—"My little daughter was taken with a very small spot on the back of her hand. It grew larger and caused her more trouble. When she would scratch it, it would bleed and get very ugly looking, so I doctored it myself for about a year, and at last it broke out on both knees, and when she would go to bed she would scratch, and was so tortured and suffered so from the itching, that I took her to our doctor, who recommended Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment.

"I sent for samples and after the first application the itching and inflammation was improved, and I kept it up night and morning, and by the time the sample was gone she complained very little, so I got a fifty-cent jar, and before that was half gone the trouble had entirely disappeared." (Signed) Mrs. Claude Schmechel, 2737 Resbury Street.

Resinol is speedily effective for itching, burning eruptions, pimples, dandruff, burns, old sores and piles. Sold by all druggists. For free samples write to Dept. 15-M, Resinol Chem. Co., Baltimore, Md.

MORE MINE PUMPS START IN MICHIGAN

(Associated Press Telegram)
Calumet, July 20.—More mine pumps started today pulling water out of shafts closed by the copper miners' strike with state troops guarding the non-union employees.
Coincident with this work several commands of militia were ordered to the neighborhood ostensibly to manuever in a big field near the mines. Brigade headquarters were instituted by a telephone message from John Keating, sheriff of Keweenaw county who asked General Abbey to withdraw troops from his jurisdiction. The sheriff said he had not requested that soldiers be sent into the county but merely that they be placed near the Houghton county line that they might be available if called for. The sheriff said there were no disturbances in his district.

Society

The delightful home of Mr. John C. Ayers, 148 East Main street on Monday evening, July 20, was the scene of one of the prettiest social events of the season, it being the occasion of the entertaining of Mrs. Guy Billingslea's Sunday school class. Miss Jeanette Ayers, assisted by her sister Miss Gladys, acting as hostess.
The following members of the class were present: Mrs. Guy Billingslea, Mrs. G. A. Manners, Mrs. R. A. Fink, Mrs. Maude McGonagle, and the Misses Ruth McKee, Justine Jones, Cora Irvin, Ruth Kastle, Nora Evans, Ruth Jones, Della Oakleaf, Lottie McMillen, Katherine Jones, Edna Swanson, and Maud Bots.
The early part of the evening was spent in a guessing contest, in which Miss Ruth McKee was victorious in winning a beautiful dolly. After this, music and conversation whiled away the time most pleasantly.
Splendid refreshments were served, not the least important of which were nabiscoes, tied with pink and blue ribbon, which, when opened, disclosed a dainty hand painted card announcing the coming marriage of Miss Jeanette Ayers, to Mr. Ursel Kenneth Swain, the wedding to take place in September, 1915. Mr. Swain, whose home is near Roseville, O., is engaged in business in this city at present. He is spoken of with the highest regards by all who know him.
The charming bride-to-be was profusely showered with congratulations, and at a late hour the guests departed each wishing the hostess a long and happy life.

The following young people enjoyed a picnic to Rain Rock Sunday: Misses Blanche Nutter, Ethel Jones, Marie Martin, Maud Horner, Alice Wilson, Mabel Kirkpatrick, Myrtle Phillips, Messrs. Ray Wilson, Roy Kirkpatrick, Lloyd Brooke, Charles Stecker, Fred Rshelman, Harry Lingafelter, Walter Stair.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. George Richardson entertained at her pretty country home near Granville in honor of Mrs. Thomas Jones and daughter of Seattle, Wash. The house was prettily decorated with greenery and cut flowers. The dining room was especially pretty in green and yellow, woodland ferns, daisies and nasturtiums being used. Little Dorothy Richards and Margaret Brook waited at the door while the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Frank Richards, Miss Anna Hughes, Mrs. Fred Hubert, Miss Belle Davis and Miss Ethel Hubert.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Gract will entertain twenty couple at their cottage, "Estherdale" at Buckeye Lake tonight in honor of their daughter Esther. The feature will be a six o'clock dinner at the cottage and a dance at the glass dancing pavilion from 8 to 12 p. m.

CARTER—TROUT.
Monday at 4 p. m., Dr. Sparks united in wedlock Mr. Ernest R. Carter and Mrs. Julia A. Trout, both well known residents of this city.

THE GIDEON CONVENTION AT TORONTO

The first international and fourteenth National Gideon convention which was held in Toronto last week, closed Sunday evening and the outlook for the future is very bright. Delegates were there from ocean to ocean and to the Gulf. Much important work was planned for the coming year, part of which is the placing of 75,000 Bibles in the hotels of the East before January 1, 1914, $8,000 for which has already been secured.
The next convention will be held in Boston in 1914. Over 200,000 Bibles to date have been placed in the hotels of this country and great good is resulting therefrom.
These men are a live bunch and as they travel up and down the land their influence is being felt in the commercial world.
Officers elected for the ensuing year are: A. B. F. Moore, president, of Cedar Rapids, Ia.; M. M. Sanderson, Buffalo, N. Y., vice president; Nels Rylander of Chicago, treasurer; Chas. M. Smith of Pontiac, Mich., chaplain; Phos. Easterland of Dallas, Texas, Mr. Gauley of Pennsylvania, and Mr. Wanamaker of Minneapolis, trustees.
M. P. Ashbrook, of Granville, who has been on the national cabinet and executive board for the past six years, retires from the cabinet, and the statement was made on the floor of the convention that there was but one man among the Gideons of the United States who had done as much or more for the organization than M. P. Ashbrook, was a compliment of which he is proud.
Mr. Ashbrook returned from Toronto Tuesday afternoon and is loud in his praise of the treatment accorded the delegates. He stated that the street railway of the Canadian city would not accept money for transportation of the Gideons, but gave them full access to all cars, transfers and all privileges.

GIRL FRIGHTENED SOUTH END BURGLAR

The cries of Florence Simross, age 8 years, granddaughter of Mrs. Wilhelm Vokelmeyer, 61 Railroad street, frightened a burglar away from the house Monday night and prevented the marauder from securing anything of value. The little girl was awakened by the noise of the burglar and gave the alarm and the thief took to his heels.
A search had been removed from the kitchen window but after getting inside, the burglar found the door leading into the front part of the house locked. He went to a side window where he was working when his operations awakened the girl.

GEN. MILLS TAKES EXCEPTION

Washington, July 20.—General A. L. Mills, U. S. A., head of the militia division of the war department, today issued a statement taking sharp exception to the praise awarded by Andrew Carnegie to Emperor William as the greatest exponent of world peace. The officer declares the German ruler has endeavored peace largely by constantly preparing for war. Thus he contends the arguments of the disarmament are completely answered.

Little Benny's Notebook

I rote this about K's-ius in my history book today.
Kissing is wat shows 2 persons think eetch uthir is awl rite, except 3 kinds. Ferst wen 2 ladys kiss eetch uthir, seckind, wen a lady kisses a baby, and 3d, wen a boy has to kiss sum relashun jest because its a relashun.
Wen 2 ladys kiss eetch uthir it dont sho anything, because ladys awlways kiss eetch uthir evvry time they havent seen eetch uthir for about 5 minits, no mattir wat they think of eetch uthir. They eetch jennerly take a litel run to get there wen they do it.
Wen a lady kisses a baby it may sho that the lady thinks the baby is awl rite, but it dont sho that the baby think the lady is awl rite wich you can tell by the baby having the sain ipresshin awn its face no mattir wheather it is kissing or not, the ipresshin not meening anything speshil. Evvry lady thinks shes got a rite to kiss eny baby, no mattir whose mothir owns it or wheather the baby evvry met the lady before or not. No man evvry wants to kiss a baby except may be the baby's fathir, wich I dont blame them. Wen baby grows up it probably forgets awl the times its bin kissed, awn akkount of if it didnt it wood probably feal sick evvry time wen it groo old enuf to remember.
Wen a boy kisses sum relashun jest because the relashun stoops down and makes a fase at him, it dont sho much eethir. This is probably the worst kind of a kiss of awl. The lady relashuns jennerly want 3 or 4 kisses wen evin wen is to meny and the men relashuns jennerly need a shave or sumthing, and if yure not karefull awl of them will make you kiss them awn the streit in frunt of awl the fellos befor you have time to run in the house.
Few men are willing to attribute their bad luck to their bad habits To flatter a man tell him he's suffering with brain fog.

murderous attentions of the anarchists.
It was 121 years ago today that a band of some 500 revolutionists from Marseilles marched into Paris, singing the Marseillaise. It was the first time that that immortal hymn had been heard in the French capital, but within a day all Paris was singing it. A few days later the reign of terror was ushered in, when Swiss guards, servants and officials of the Tuilleries, to the number of eight hundred, were massacred, while the bands played the Marseillaise.
The hymn has often seemed to serve as an incitement to violence. It has been heard in many American cities during labor troubles, and rioting has almost invariably followed. The feminine Bashibazoukas of England smash windows and destroy property to the air of the Marseillaise. Discontent with the existing order has for over a century found its musical expression in the stirring words and music composed by Rouget de Lillie. Socialists and syndicalists, suffragettes, nationalists, republicans in monarchies, single taxers, radicals of all shades, and inspiration in the Marseillaise. In France the hymn is popular with all classes, save the royalists, to whom it recalls unpleasant memories. For good and for ill, Rouget de Lillie was a genius and his song has been the inspiration of great deeds as well as ignoble ones. "For ever in thine eyes, O Liberty! shines that high light whereby the world is saved; and though thou slay us, we will trust in thee."

Italian Anarchists Celebrate Festival of "Saint" Bresci

"Death to kings!"
"Down with government!"
"To hell with capitalism!"
These are some of the toasts that will be offered tonight at the annual celebrations in many American and Italian cities of the anniversary of the assassination of King Humbert I., father of the present king of Italy.
Anarchism has its "saints" and "martyrs" and its festivals, and of the latter the two most generally observed are the anniversaries of the Haymarket riot and the slaying of King Humbert by "Saint" Bresci.
"Martyr."
It was thirteen years ago today, July 29, 1901, that the beloved Humbert was killed at Monza by the anarchist assassin Bresci. Several shots were fired at the ruler, all of them finding lodgment in his body. The king was driving when the attack was made, and died before reaching the palace. Bresci declared that he had left America to kill the king, but denied that he had any accomplices.
Three years ago the Italian anarchists plotted to "celebrate" the festival of "St." Bresci by assassinating Humbert's widow, "Dowager Queen Margherita," but one of the anarchists confessed, afterward committing suicide, and the plot was foiled.
Of a very different nature will be the observance today at the chapel expiatoire erected by order of Margherita on the very spot at Monza where the late king was shot down. Memorial services are held each year on the anniversary of Humbert's death in the chapel, a triumph of the art of architecture.
Victor Emmanuel, who begins the fourteenth year of his reign today, has been attacked by anarchists on several occasions. He has been called "the most democratic sovereign in the world," and Socialists and radical leaders are often invited to the palace but this has not saved him from the

MORE ARRESTS FOR FRAUDS OF I. & R. PETITIONS

Columbus, O., July 29—Harry J. Bradbury, Cleveland detective who worked for the state in the legislative bribery cases, has been engaged by Governor Cox to run down evidence in prosecuting those engaged in the referendum frauds.

Attorney Charles S. Northrop of Toledo, representing the attorney general's department in that city, reported yesterday that a special grand jury probably will be called to probe the referendum frauds in Lucas county, where it is alleged more than 90 per cent of the signatures filed were forgeries.

Lima, July 29—Deputy Sheriff Watt went to Fostoria to place under arrest George Hall, a business man of that city, on a charge of perjury in connection with the circulation of the referendum petitions on the Green compensation law. Russell Knepper, prosecuting attorney of Seneca county, swore to an affidavit in Marietta Everett's court, averring that nine of eleven names attached to the petition circulated in Fostoria and Tiffin by Mr. Hall, and sworn to before P. A. Kahleal, notary public were bogus.

The petition was circulated in the two Seneca county cities June 11, sworn to in Lima the same day and recorded at the secretary of state's office June 12.

Investigation by Assistant Attorney General Charles C. Marshall and Prosecutor Knepper disclosed that nine of the names were alleged forgeries and that the street addresses that accompanied them were also bogus. The prosecutor charged in the affidavit that Mr. Hall's oath as to the regularity of the petition in his affidavit was a perjury.

Mr. Hall will be brought to Lima for arraignment. Assistant Attorney General Marshall declared last night that immediate investigation would also be begun of the petitions circulated in Allen county.

FIFTH FRAUD VICTIM IS HELD.

Toledo, July 29—The fifth arrest in the referendum alleged fraud cases was made when Constable Harry Cherry brought in Barney Keyes, alias George McGraw, alias Benard A. McGraw, and arranged him before Judge Gosline. Keyes pleaded not guilty. He will be given a hearing Thursday.

Keyes is a farm hand, 30 years old. The affidavit filed by agents of the attorney general charges perjury. The affidavit also names Vermont Walters as the notary accepting the oath of the man who presented the petition.

NO PETITIONS ARE TO ESCAPE!

All Referendum Signatures Will Be Closely Examined.

Columbus, Ohio, July 29—Not even the referendum petition filed by the Anti-Saloon league to vote a bill prohibiting the shipment of liquor into dry territory will escape close scrutiny by the secretary of state to ascertain whether signatures are genuine. "Of course the petitions will be examined closely," said Assistant Secretary Secrest yesterday.

"Every petition filed will be put to the test as a result of exposures of fraud in connection with the workmen's compensation referendum," he continued.

Additional signatures, bringing the total up to 38,213 were filed yesterday by Wayne B. Wheeler. Yesterday was the last day to file petitions for referendum on this bill.

Woman Finds Quick Relief in Our Reliable Sazo Salve.

Mrs. Nellie Neville, 19 Ardsley road, Schenectady, N. Y., says: "One year ago I was taken with a severe itching in back of my scalp. It was torture at times. Nothing ever helped me until I used Sazo Salve, and it certainly was just the thing. It acted like magic, the very first application gave me relief. I used night and morning for two weeks and now I can say that it has entirely cured me, as I have not felt any return of the malady. I also find Sazo Salve good for burns. I would not be without it in the house."

NEWARK EXTENDS HEARTY WELCOME TO DR. ENGLE

"I certainly appreciate the hearty welcome that has been given me by the citizens of Newark, for my time has been fully occupied ever since I was open for business." Thus spoke Dr. Engle to the reporter today, and then continued: "People are beginning to discriminate between the false and the true, and evidently prefer to patronize a citizen of Newark than to give their money and influence to 'A Medical Trick.' When they know that I own and conduct my own office and no other, and that they will see me only, they will respond even more heartily."

Dr. Engle has been very successful in the treatment of all chronic diseases, after being able in one treatment to give permanent relief from the ailment, even in cases generally considered as hopeless.

When you call upon the Doctor, it costs you nothing, for a true examination of your case. If your case is incurable by him, he will tell you so frankly and you owe him nothing. Is this fair?

Dr. Engle has fitted an office at Suite 506 Newark Trust Building, Newark, O., where he will be pleased to meet his old patrons and many new ones.

The Doctor treats successfully all Chronic Diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels, Catarrh, Gout, Rupture, Private Ailments of Men and Women, Skin Diseases and Rectal Troubles and Rheumatism.

During the balance of July and all of August the Doctor is making a Free Treatment offer, that it will pay you to investigate.

DEFENSE OF LAWS OF LAST LEGISLATURE

Columbus, July 29—The Democratic state executive committee has just issued a 64-page pamphlet under the title, "A Review of the Worth of the Eightieth General Assembly," in which it is stated that "Ohio, once completely dominated by the interests, and later ruled by a greedy and corrupt crew that stole earnings on deposits of state money, and also ran the government for its own emolument has been freed."

Within the body of the work, 36 promises made by Governor Cox in his campaign last year are set forth, followed by 56 laws that were passed by the legislature—presented as the fulfillment of those promises.

"Again the Democratic party has demonstrated that all promises made by it will be fulfilled," says the writer of the pamphlet. "Not even a breath of suspicion exists against any senator or representative." It is declared, and there is added the statement that "It is the first time in many years that charges of graft and corruption have not been raised to cause the people of Ohio to point fingers of scorn at their body of law makers."

The pamphlet is designed to be used as a sort of Democratic campaign text book.

NO PRIMARIES FOR TOWNSHIPS IN YEAR 1913

Columbus, O., July 29—Ohio's new primary laws are proving to be difficult of comprehension to election boards throughout the state, and despite ample instructions sent out by Secretary of State Charles H. Graves questions continue to be asked.

The most persistent is whether townships that have more than 2,000 population have partisan primaries. The notion prevails that if a township contains more than 2,000 persons it must hold a primary.

Graves has sent out word that the population of the township has no bearing on the question. That unless 50 per cent of the electors petition it townships have no primaries for the nomination of officers, but must nominate by petition.

CHANGES MADE IN THE BUREAU OF PENSIONS

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, July 29—A sharp fight in congress is threatened as a result of the action of the pension bureau in which many changes are being made of late.

Representative Austin of Tennessee, a Republican, has already offered a resolution in the house, calling on Secretary Lane of the interior department for information concerning the alleged shakeup, especially as to whether civil service rules are being violated.

The activity of the Republicans is said to be based on the report that when Pension Commissioner Saltzgaber returns to his post there will be further and more sweeping charges.

ACCIDENT TO THE BERRY PICKERS BY INTERURBAN

(Associated Press Telegram) Steubenville, O., July 29—Three boys were injured, one fatally, early today while asleep on the interurban railroad John and David Brenner, brothers, 19 and 17 years old respectively, and Philip Kock, 18, came from Wheeling, W. Va., last night.

They arose early this morning and started out to pick blackberries. They became sleepy and laid down on the Market street bridge and partly on the track. They were struck by a car. Kock's skull was fractured and he will die from the effects. John Brenner's right leg was cut off and David lost his left leg.

CONTROLLING SYMPTOMS IN DIABETES

A technical medical friend said, "You don't cure diabetes, you make them think they are better and prolong their lives for a while."

Suppose that is true and suppose Mrs. Kline of San Francisco, a niece of the late U. S. Supreme Justice Stephen J. Field was not cured when she had gangrenous nails and was given but six months to live when she went on Fulton's Diabetes Compound sixteen years ago. Suppose that a test would still show some sugar and that she has even now to take the compound occasionally to keep well?

And suppose that a professor in one of the Universities of Virginia who was given up by Diabetes in 1889 was living at last advised in 1912, and had been performing his duties these twenty years and over as the result of this treatment? Are there not thousands of diabetes in the United States who would be delighted to have the same experience and if they can have it don't they owe it to their families?

If you have Diabetes and are middle aged or over you owe it to yourself and family to try Fulton's Diabetes Compound before giving up. It can be had at F. D. Hall, druggist.

Ask for pamphlet or write John J. Fulton Company San Francisco.

MOOSE WILL BUILD A NEW $75,000 HOME

With the issue of incorporation papers at Columbus Tuesday to the Licking Lodge No. 499, Loyal Order of Moose Home, announcement was made here that this lodge expects to commence construction of a suitable home within the next year. Charles Leary and others were the incorporators.

While no definite conclusion has been reached regarding the site, or whether the building will include business rooms on the ground floor, the lodge trustees are settled on one point and that is to provide a suitable home for the members.

It is planned to spend about $75,000 in the construction of the building. Several sites are under consideration and it is probable that definite action will be taken soon.

This lodge, while one of the newer organizations, has a membership in Newark of over 200 and it is on a substantial foundation.

DENISON SUMMER SCHOOL CLOSING AT SUMMERLAND

Enrollment Larger Than Last Year—Assembly Opens Next Sunday With Good Program.

Classes at the Denison Summer school at Summerland Beach are closing this week. The work of the school will be completed Friday, August 1. While it is a new institution, it is growing steadily, both in enrollment and in reputation for good and thorough work.

The school is under the management of Prof. Goodell of Denison, who has always been active in boosting Denison's interests in the field.

The enrollment this year for the term was 75 and although this is not so great as was expected earlier in the season, it is an increase of 15 over the attendance last year. The school is very favorably situated and with the Baptist Assembly place located at the same place, it offers an excellent opportunity for a summer's outing in connection with its educational work.

The Summerland Beach Assembly opens Sunday, August 2.

The Assembly has on its 1914 program a number of strong lectures and entertainments in addition to the best Bible teachers that can be obtained. Among the prominent men who are booked for this season are Prof. Garland A. Bricker, assistant professor of Agriculture of O. S. U., Dr. Lincoln Hulley, president of John R. Stetson University, Rev. Geo. E. Gault, leader in the extension movement of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

WARNED TO GIVE HEBRON WIDE BIRTH

A fraternal feeling for the Ohio State Journal scribe who wrote the story about the escape of the man from the Hebron lockup Sunday prompts us to give him a quiet tip to keep away from that village, lest he violate some ordinance and thereby get into the clutches of Mayor T. M. White. Should such an unfortunate state of affairs develop, it is safe to assert that the said O. S. J. writer will be "there" when he is wanted. We have the mayor's own statement to support this theory.

Mayor White, in conversation with an Advocate reporter today stated that he was not present when the Sunday escape occurred from the village lockup and that he was in no way responsible for it.

"The reporter who wrote the story did not come to headquarters for his information," said Mr. White. "Furthermore, I will say that if that same reporter ever chances to be locked up in Hebron he will be right there when wanted if I have to lock him up in my burglar proof chicken coop."

Mr. White states that the escape would not have occurred had he been on duty.

WHEELING WOMAN PRAISES DOCTORS

SUFFERED FROM STOMACH, KIDNEY AND NERVE TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS UNTIL GOING TO UNITED DOCTORS.

OTHER DOCTORS FAILED.

No Other Treatment Helped. Her, But Two Weeks of New Treatment Accomplishes Great Results.

Again the same story is told of a sufferer who has been unable to obtain any relief from their ailment before going to the United Doctors. There has been so many hundreds of statements like the following already made in Newark that it has set the United Doctors as a standard and made the Newark Institute of these specialists indeed the final resort of sufferers. At the Newark Institute on the second floor of the Arcade many scores of patients are treated daily and from patients nothing but praise is heard.

The following tells its own story: "I have been ill for five years with Stomach, Kidney and Nerve trouble, which no amount of treatment seemed to help. I treated with two prominent Wheeling physicians but all to no avail. My limbs pained me constantly and my stomach was in bad shape and I would vomit after eating and could not enjoy food. My appetite was very poor most of the time and altogether I was in bad shape.

Two weeks ago I went to the United Doctors, who have their Wheeling Institute at No. 12 Twelfth street, and results have been remarkable. My Stomach, Kidneys and Nerves are now in good shape and I have no more bloating and miseries. No other treatment ever gave a fraction of the help I have received in this time. In fact I feel that I am entirely cured and cannot thank the United Doctors too much for what they have done for me.

MRS. LINA PERRELLA, 1215 12th Street, Wheeling, W. Va.

central committee has been organized and is stated and agreed upon an applicant but they have not been called together for an endorsement.

The Progressives of Hull County have endorsed Earl Murray, the well known local insurance man. His chances are said to be excellent for the reason that Governor Cox practically has assumed the Progressives of the temporary patronage in practically every county in the state according to press dispatches from Columbus.

APPLICATIONS ARE POURING INTO THE GOVERNOR'S OFFICE

Associated Press Telegram. Columbus, O., July 29.—Scores of letters, applications and endorsements for members of the new liquor license commission, poured into the office of Governor Cox today. Many of the letters were prompted by the publication of the names of applicant for members of the commission in the newspapers a few days ago.

One man who undoubtedly believes in "luck" enclosed a four leafed clover with his application. Governor Cox smiled when he saw it but did not indicate that the clover would influence him in making selections for members of the Liquor Commission.

An authoritative statement was made today that the members of the liquor license commission will not be announced this week. The law creating the commission does not become effective until August 6, and the 60 day period during which a referendum petition may be filed does not expire this week.

SECOND BATCH OF UNRULY PRISONERS LEAVE SING SING

Associated Press Telegram. Ossining, N. Y., July 29.—Convict squad No. 2, a double line of sixty prison-garbed men, left Sing Sing for Auburn today with no more hostile demonstration than a volley of cheers. In sharp contrast to the din for loose inside the prison when squad No. 1 marched out last week was the tense silence of their 1200 comrades left behind.

Twelve keepers, heavily armed, led and flanked the line on its way from the prison to the train. The prisoners were chained to each other two and two, ankle and wrist. With their free hands they waved their caps at the photographers and laughed and chatted as if in the best of spirits. They were chained to the seats of their car.

With the removal of this second batch of unruly prisoners, Warden Clancy believes that the convict delinquency which has resulted in continuing insubordination and two fires has been halted. All in today's squad were second offenders and most of them, the warden believes, were leaders in the recent disturbances. The squad was characterized by Head Keeper Cunningham as "the outtest and best behaved draft that ever left the prison."

MOTOR CYCLE RIDER COLLIDES WITH CAR AND BUGGY

When a man ventured to risk his neck today between a passing buggy and a westward bound car, the intervention of an East Main street late Monday afternoon, July 27, resulted in a collision with the car and a collision with the buggy. The man was injured by the car and was taken to the hospital and is now recovering.

TWO APPOINTMENTS MADE BY GOVERNOR

Associated Press Telegram. Columbus, O., July 29.—Governor Cox this afternoon announced the appointment of Frank W. Miller, of Dayton, to be superintendent of public instruction and James A. Devine, of Cleveland as superintendent of the new building and loan department created by the last legislature. Mr. Miller and Mr. Devine have been in charge of old departments which are changed and enlarged by the two laws.
